

Visit of Centre for World Environmental History, University of Sussex, Falmer,
Brighton, United Kingdom team members in FRI, Dehra Dun

|                                 |                         |                                                             |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                 |                         | FRI,Dehra Dun from New Delhi by ACExpress.          |
|                                 | 9.00a.m.                | Breakfast                                                   |
|                                 | 10.am to12.30p.m.   | Visit of FRI Museums, Library andCampus.                |
|                                 | 1.00p.m. to2.00p.m. | Lunch break                                                 |
|                                 | 2.30p.m                 | Departure from FRI for WII, DehraDun.                   |
|                                 | 3.00                    |                                                             |
|                                 |                         | and discussion withScientists                           |
|                                 | 5.00p.m.                | Departure from WII.                                         |
| 2 nd September, 2013 | 6.00p.m.                | Arrival at Scientists Hostel, FRI.                          |
|                                 | 9.00a.m.                | Departure for field visit ofSahastradhara and Maldevta. |
|                                 | 1.00p.m. to2.00p.m. | Lunch break (Packed lunch).                                 |
|                                 | 4.00p.m.                | Departure from Maldevta.                                    |
|                                 | 5.00p.m.                | Arrival at Scientists Hostel, FRI.                          |